1.

2.

1. Cut a piece of elegant eggplant 8-1/2 x 5-1/4 and score at 4-1/4.

2. Cut of piece of So Saffron 5-1/4 x 4.

4.

3. Place the Lucky Limeade piece on the Big Shot and align the Edglit Die. I sometimes use a "Post It" to keep it from slipping.

4. Here is the piece cut. End up with it being 5" in length & approx. 2" in width.

5. Cut the piece of DSP to run through the Big Shot5 x 2.

5.

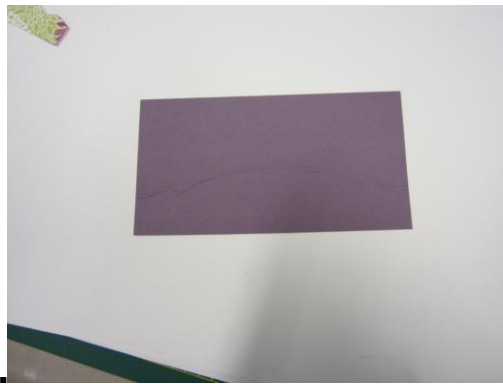

6.

6. Align the Edgelit Die and cut the DSP. Here's what the final cut looks like.

7.

8.

7. Place the Plum piece in the Adoring Accent Folder and run through the Big Shot.

8. Here's the end result.

9.

10.

9. Adhere the pieces as shown but do not attach to the So Saffron yet. Everything should line up and the So Saffron will be a tiny bit bigger.

10. Run the Whisper White piece through the Big Shot in the Vintage Wallpaper Embossing Folder.

11.

12.

11. Attach the Whisper White piece to the top.

12. Before attaching these pieces to the card, wrap the Daffodil Deight ribbon and adhere to the back now attach to the So Saffron piece.

13.

14.

13. Stamp the sentiment in Lucky Limeade.

14. Arrange the sentiment pieces together as shown.

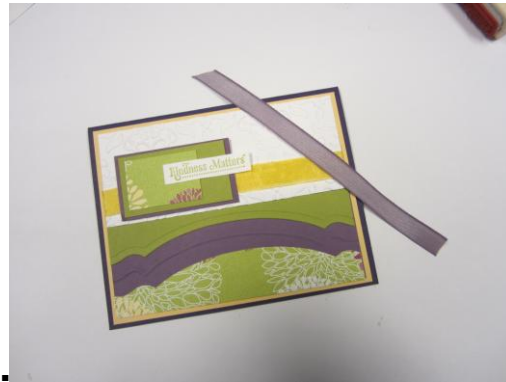

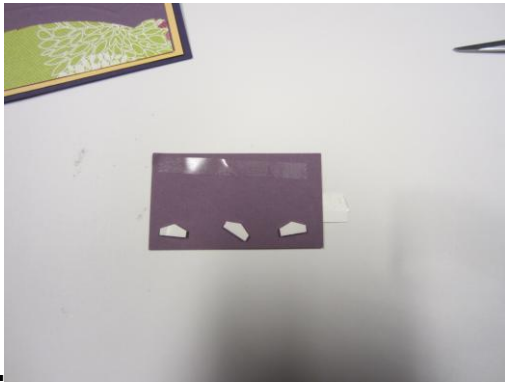

15.

16.

15. Let the sentiment “float “ over the edge.

16. Adhere to the Elegant Eggplant card front.

17. Place some dimensionals on the top half of the sentiment piece and snail on the part that will hit the ribbon.

18. Attach to the card and ready the plum ribbon. Just a knot works well.

Done!!!!

Hope you had fun using the edgelits!!! Thanks for all your support.
